

NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT AND STATEMENT OF NATO IMPROVED LINK ELEVEN (NILE) BLOCK CYCLE RELEASE INFORMATION

The Recipient recognizes that NILE Technical material is the property of the NILE Nations (Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America). NILE Technical material is defined as every version of the NILE Block Cycle Release and all documentation and software contained within it, or documentation, software, or briefing material derived from it, or any other material provided by the NILE Project Management Office (PMO) and marked as NILE information. The Recipient will not disclose, retransfer or use NILE material or NILE derived material for any purpose other than the purposes authorized by the NILE PMO. The Recipient will refer all requests for NILE material in writing to the NILE PMO.

The Recipient acknowledges that it is liable under this NDA, and other applicable laws and regulations, for the unauthorized disclosure or use of the Data by its employees. The Recipient is responsible for compliance with export control restrictions and all other markings on the Data, as applicable. The Recipient agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Government, its agents, and employees from every claim or liability, including attorney's fees, court costs, and expenses arising out of, or in any way related to, the misuse or unauthorized modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of Data received from the Government with restrictive legends by the Recipient or any person to whom the Recipient has released or disclosed the Data. Further, the Recipient agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Government, its agents, and employees from every claim or liability, including attorney's fees, court costs, and expenses arising out of, or in any way related to, any deficiencies or harmful content of the Data, from any person to whom the Recipient has released or disclosed the Data.
